Student Leadership Facilitator Job Description

POSITION OBJECTIVE:

Center for Tomorrow's Leaders is a growing, impactful nonprofit organization dedicated to engaging, equipping, and empowering young leaders for Hawaii. Through signature high school programs as well as Vanguard, CTL's alumni initiative, CTL is creating an atmosphere for leaders to be discovered and launched. New team members will join a dynamic and fun environment - committed to young leaders.

PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITIES:

In this position, facilitator will be:

- Teaching leadership lessons in a variety of schools' classrooms
- Learning and practicing the CTL leadership curriculum, and the field of leadership
- Liaising with advising teacher, administration and CTL
- Coaching students in character, communication and student-led projects
- Assisting with office administration and major events

Hours are regular full-time, but nights and weekends may be required occasionally. The position requires a current driver's license and use of a personal car to drive to classes at various high schools. Applicants must also be able to stand and teach a full class period, typically 60 minutes. The position is required to report to the Entrepreneurs Sandbox, CTL's current office location.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Strong interpersonal skills to inspire diverse students, especially coming from disadvantaged backgrounds
- Ability to speak clearly, succinctly, and persuasively
- Teachability and willingness to grow
- Bachelor's degree

PREFERENCES:

- Willingness to travel to other islands in the State of Hawaii
- High School teaching experience

SALARY AND BENEFITS:

- Competitive salary which includes comprehensive benefits package including medical insurance with vision and dental and paid time off
